

Rat Zapper Ultra Named Among the “Coolest Gizmos in the Universe” for 2006 by Wired Magazine!

“It’s the perfect solution to my rat problem: The varmint goes in to snag the bait, steps on the ‘kill plate,’ and receives the dread power of four D batteries. This little death chamber has none of the grisly intimacy of glue traps or mechanical snap-pers – after the deed is done, turn it off and dump the corpse in the garbage.”
